INTRODUCTION

This Annual Report for the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection is respectfully presented to Chief Justice Maureen O'Connor and Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

For the past 36 years, the Court has provided financial reimbursement to law clients who sustain financial losses resulting from dishonest Ohio lawyers. The Court established the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection to carry out this mission, thereby restoring public confidence in the legal profession. This mission is accomplished by the Court's allocation of funding from attorney registration fees. Since the establishment of the Lawyers' Fund in 1985, the Court has allocated more than $25 million toward achieving the mission of promoting public confidence in the integrity of the legal profession.

Despite the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, the commissioners continued to meet, and the staff continued to perform their responsibilities using a virtual platform. This report includes a detailed review of reimbursements made during fiscal year 2021, including the types of claims reimbursed and the restitution collected from dishonest lawyers.

The legal profession is the only profession that reimburses losses caused by the dishonest conduct of its members. While the overwhelming majority of Ohio lawyers observe high standards of integrity and professionalism when entrusted with law-client money or property, the dishonest acts of a few can have a negative effect on the public's image of and confidence in the legal profession as a whole.

The Board of Commissioners, as well as the staff, commend the Supreme Court of Ohio for its continuing and unwavering support of the mission and purpose of the Fund.

CHAIR'S COMMENTS

On behalf of the Board of Commissioners of the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection of Ohio, I am pleased to present this report to the Supreme Court of Ohio covering the work of the Fund during fiscal year 2021.

In fiscal year 2021, the Fund received 17 new applications for reimbursement. The Board reviewed 45 claims, determining 39 were eligible for reimbursement. The total reimbursement for eligible claims for fiscal year 2021 was $373,548.74. One claimant received the maximum reimbursement of $75,000.

The reimbursements made in fiscal year 2021 resulted from the dishonest conduct of 22 Ohio attorneys. As in previous years, this number represents less than one-tenth of 1% of all active Ohio attorneys.

Unearned-fee claims accounted for 33 of the 39 eligible claims and 32% of the total amount reimbursed by the Fund. By contrast, there were five claims involving theft by fiduciary, representing 66% of the total dollars reimbursed in fiscal year 2021.

During fiscal year 2021, the Court approved amendments to Gov.Bar. R. VIII, increasing the maximum award amount from $75,000 to $100,000 per claim and increasing the time within which a claim must be filed from one year to five years. These rule amendments became effective on Nov. 1, 2020.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Commissioners with whom I serve for their hard work and dedication to the accomplishment of the Fund's mission. These individuals volunteer their time and expertise to help improve the image of the legal profession by helping those who have been harmed by the dishonest acts of a few.

I would like to thank the staff of the Fund whose responsibilities include, but are not limited to, investigation of claims, presentation of claims to the Board, and numerous other administrative tasks. Their contribution to the Fund's mission is invaluable.

I would also like to thank the Supreme Court of Ohio for its continued support of the Fund's mission and goals, and for the confidence placed in me by allowing me to chair this board.

Public Information & Consumer Education

Referrals by disciplinary agencies continue to account for the largest category of claims filed with the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection. The LFCP distributes applications and informational pamphlets to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and Certified Grievance Committees to assist them with referrals.

The LFCP prepares and distributes public announcements as an additional means of informing the public about the fund. In addition to general information about the LFCP, the announcements contain information about claims determined by the board to be eligible for reimbursement. The Court's Office of Public Information assists with the preparation and distribution of the announcements.

The LFCP's presence on the internet is also a means of informing the public of the Fund's existence. The LFCP's webpage contains questions and answers about the Fund and the types of claims reimbursed. An application for reimbursement is available on the webpage, as well as an informational pamphlet. Both are available in English and Spanish.

In collaboration with the Court's Commission on Professionalism, the LFCP publishes "A Consumer's Practical Guide to Managing a Relationship with a Lawyer." The guide provides general information about the lawyer-client relationship, including how to find a lawyer, what to expect after hiring a lawyer, and how to avoid problems in the lawyer-client relationship. The consumer guide is distributed statewide to bar associations, public libraries, law firms, and other professional and governmental offices.
