

National Client Protection Organization

The Isaac Hecht Award Nomination Form

The Isaac Hecht Award honors the memory of Maryland Attorney Isaac Hecht and his professional service to the legal profession as one of NCPO's co-founders. The Hecht Award recognizes individuals and professional organizations that have demonstrated "excellence in the field of law client protection."

A demonstration of "excellence" includes:

- A significant achievement in promoting public confidence in the integrity of the legal profession
- The substantial reimbursement of legal clients for eligible losses caused by a lawyer's dishonest conduct
- The development of programs to prevent or detect professional misconduct in the practice of law
- Meaningful public information programs for attorneys and legal consumers

The Isaac Hecht Award Recipient is recognized at the annual NCPO Workshop held in the Fall.

Nominations must be submitted by July 1st to info@ncpo.org
